Science at Chicheley Hall

In addition to being renowned for weddings, meeting, and conferences, Chicheley Hall is proud to be home of the Kavli Royal Society International Centre, a venue for residential events. As the oldest scientific academy in continuous existence, The Royal Society is dedicated to promoting excellence in science and is a fellowship of many of the world's most eminent scientists.

Tucked away in 80 acres of beautifully kept grounds, Chicheley Hall, Chicheley is ideal for your great getaway or grand events.
