

A striking city landmark in a waterfront location

Situated on the waterfront of Cardiff Bay, voco™ St. David's Cardiff is a striking landmark. Dynamic and contemporary in style, the building incorporates a glassbacked atrium from floor to ceiling, giving a vision of space and natural light. The hotel provides the highest levels of service, the ultimate in comfort, leisure and cuisine. It also provides extensive conference and meeting facilities.

Just five minutes from the centre of Cardiff by car, voco™ St. David's Cardiff is adjacent to Mermaid Quay with a wide range of restaurants, bars and entertainment including the Wales Millennium Centre, home of the Welsh National Opera and an international arts complex.
