When choosing a venue for your wedding, you want the very best. We understand this is your special day and it simply has to be perfect.

Arriving at Devonport House is an experience in itself: with its impressive facade of tall white columns, bold lines and perfect symmetry, it radiates elegance, sophistication and charm. This home has a noble history. Its name derives from Viscount Devonport, who led the fund-raising campaign to build the house as a memorial to merchant seaman in the First World War.

Designed by Sir Edwin Cooper, it was opened in 1929 by the Duke and Duchess of York – the future George VI and Queen Elizabeth. These days the house, rooms and every detail are all yours to enjoy. Whether it’s your reception, your ceremony or both, we’ll make sure your day is as individual, exciting and memorable as you have always dreamed.
You no doubt have your own ideas about your special day, from the classic and traditional to the creative and quirky. If you are looking for inspiration, we can provide plenty of suggestions, or you're welcome to take the lead and let your imagination run riot. We believe no two weddings should ever be the same.

Situated on the Greenwich World Heritage Site, next to Royal Greenwich Park, the stunning Georgian house has a range of suites – named after key figures in naval history – that can accommodate the most intimate or extravagant plans.

We are licensed to hold civil ceremonies, and can cater for up to 110 guests. For smaller gatherings of up to 30 people, you could opt for the Drake or Churchill suites. Outside to the front, the landscaped garden is the perfect backdrop for drinks, canapés, and not to mention those soon-to-be cherished wedding photos.
Dining at Devonport House is all about exceptional produce, farm-fresh ingredients and flexible options. Our head chef is looking forward to meeting with you to talk through your ideas and explain the best seasonal produce.

No meal would be complete without excellent wines and Champagne and we offer some of the finest vintages from French chateaux, as well as some lesser-known gems from around the world. During your drinks reception, we’ll keep the conversation flowing with tall Pimms, classic Kir Royales or flutes of Champagne.

Then, as night falls, we can boost the energy levels with a platter of local cheeses, or for something out of the ordinary, hearty hotdogs.

Sensational food for a sparkling occasion
Your first night as Mr & Mrs

The memories needn’t end with the last dance. As the party winds down, retire to your luxurious bedroom and recline in style.

With 99 modern en-suite rooms, your guests can be sure of completing their day at Devonport House in classic style. All the bedrooms are equipped with LCD TVs and other useful mod cons. But after a day of excitement, most guests head straight for the large inviting beds, complete with gorgeous soft linens.

After a long lie-in, meet up and re-live those moments over our breakfast, local bacon and sausages, free-range eggs and freshly-ground coffee. Guests are then welcome to blow away any fuzziness by taking a gentle stroll around Royal Greenwich Park, or head into town and take in the sights.
Arrive early and let us do all the hard work

Devonport House is the perfect place to get away from it all, relax and recharge.

Arrive early and calm any last minute wedding nerves with a leisurely stroll in our grounds. In the evening, you could get together with friends and family in your own private dining room or simply put your feet up in the lounge.

As the build-up begins, our team will make sure you and your guests feel extra-special. From arranging a treatment for the bridal group to organising the make-up and hair stylist. We’ll take care of everything. Nothing is more important to us than your big day.
For many wedding parties it’s a rare chance to spend time with friends and family from far and wide. But it can all seem so quick.

After a long lie-in, why not take a stroll around our stunning grounds, relax in our lounge, or enjoy an afternoon tea and gently ease yourself back into reality.

Spend a day out in Greenwich soaking up the romantic baroque architecture, admiring the impressive views of London, and learning about science, navigation and history.

When visiting Maritime Greenwich, you’ll be on one of London’s world heritage sites and when the weather is warm and sunny, Greenwich Park makes an ideal spot for a picnic. Discover the Royal Museums Greenwich collection or experience the taste of Greenwich Market!

With such comfort around you, and the warmth of friends and family, why rush back to the real world?
The perfect end

Your Special Day

May we take this opportunity to congratulate you on behalf of everyone at Devonport House on your forthcoming marriage and extend our very best wishes to you both in the future.

From the moment you are greeted onto the red carpet to the time you dine in our elegant function suites, our attentive team at Devonport House will make every effort to ensure your day is perfect from beginning to end. Standing proudly in the historic grounds of the World Heritage Site, Devonport House is a stunning Georgian property which boasts the National Maritime Museum, Royal Greenwich Park, The Naval College and the Cutty Sark as neighbours.

Recently sympathetically restored to its original splendour, Devonport House offers a range of period style rooms for civil marriages and wedding receptions. Our classically furnished suites can cater for up to 100 guests for a civil ceremony, with our elegant Westminster room catering for up to 110 guests for a wedding breakfast.
